Inclement Weather Policy

St. James Child Development Center will follow Portland Public Schools when inclement weather situations arise. There are two options for inclement weather situations: Delay school openings for two hours, or close the schools all together. Before deciding which to do, district officials consult with local meteorologists, city transportation officials, and PPS transportation staff in the field.

Closure information can be found on the St. James CDC website, Portland Public Schools website, and major news outlets.

We will email all families on our listserv in the event of delay or closure.
